Lake City Bank Financial Wellness Partner Program

In today's market of nearly full employment, attracting and retaining good employees can be complicated. When creating the benefit package that will lure the right people for the job, the cost-benefit analysis of what to include is difficult. Why don't you let us help you check a benefit off your list for free? Lake City Bank's Financial Wellness Partner Program enables you to help your employees improve their financial wellness through hands-on workshops taught at your business by Lake City Bank team members.

You provide the space to hold the workshops, and we provide the instructor and all the materials needed to teach them. Since you know your employees best, you decide the dates, times and topic(s) for the workshops.

For more information about the Financial Wellness Partner Program, visit lakecitybank.com/fwpp or call 574-773-5553

Officer Rod Bradway was shot and killed after responding to a domestic disturbance call at the Eagle Pointe Apartment complex. Upon his arrival, he heard a woman screaming for help and forced entry into an apartment where he came under fire by a male subject who fired at least six shots, wounding him. He was able to return fire eight times, striking the suspect. Officer Bradway was shot in his chest above his bullet-resistant vest. He was taken to Wishard Memorial Hospital where he died from his wounds two hours later. The 24-year-old suspect, who had held the victims captive for three hours, was shot and killed after the arrival by a second officer. He was a convicted felon who had been released on parole three months earlier for dealing and possessing cocaine.

Officer Bradway was assigned to the Northwest District. He had previously served with the Wayne Township Fire Department as a volunteer firefighter and emergency medical technician for 10 years. He was survived by his wife, Jamie; teenage son, Jonathan; teenage daughter, Sierra; brother, Carl "Chip"; and parents, Thomas and Sheri Ann. He was posthumously awarded the department's Medal of Honor and Purple Heart for being credited with saving the lives of the suspect's former girlfriend and her 11-month-old daughter. Officer Bradway had recently been awarded the department's Medal of Bravery for saving a suicidal man intent on killing himself with a butcher knife

Law Enforcement Congressional Badge of Bravery

The Law Enforcement Congressional Badge of Bravery, created by the U.S. Congress in 2008, is a national award to honor exceptional acts of bravery in the line of duty by law enforcement officers. Officer Bradway is the first fallen officer of our state who has been a recipient of this award.
